v.

KWASI A. ASANTE

Crim. No. 2:16-cr-19-02

On December 6, 2017, the above-named appeared before the Court and was sentenced to 60 months imprisonment to be followed by three years of supervised release. On October 7, 2021, the supervised releasee filed a motion with the Court seeking early termination of supervised release. The government filed a response on October 12, 2021, indicating it does not oppose early termination and the U.S. Probation Offices in Ohio, where the supervisee currently resides and is supervised, and Vermont, where jurisdiction of the case remains, also have no objection to the request. According to information provided by the U.S. Probation Offices, and noted by the government in its response to the supervised releasee's motion, the supervised releasee has complied with the rules and regulations of supervised release and is no longer in need of supervision.

ORDER OF COURT

Pursuant to the above report, it is ordered that the supervised releasee be discharged from supervision and the proceedings in the case be terminated.

Dated this 14th day of October, 2021.
